

Expo Cas 2006

Multimedia International organizes presents everything for the home of your dreams

From furniture to bathroom fixtures, tiles to hot tubs, pest control to plasma screen TV's, those that are wish to see their home is their castle will find what they want at Expo Cas 2006, which officially opened to the public today at 4:00 P.M.

The Renaissance Conference Center in Oranjestad will host the home décor and real estate exposition for the next two days, and nearly fifty booths provide not only information but also the opportunity to physically see modern bathrooms, the bed of the future fromm Texas Furniture, and much more. Real estate firms such as Best & Solid and Remax ITR offer homes and condominiums for sale, while ABJL & Partners and Mejia Engineering are there to show you how to design your own. From their booths, you can go talk to ARU Wood Designers or Decoration Center for ideas on interior design. Furniture, flooring, appliances, and a working Jacuzzi from Willy's Pool Service are all on display, with informed representatives available to help potential homeowners or those refurbishing to calculate their needs and the cost. If you are lacking imagination, ask the experts at Mejia Engineering to create a 3D virtual model of your dream home, so you can save money and time before consulting an architect! If one is concerned about how to afford these luxuries and necessities, RBTT Bank and Aruba Bank are ready and willing to help you acquire the perfect home, and Fatum General Insurance will make sure the investment is properly protected. Other booths providing information and displays include AG.S., AMC Unicon, ATCO/Ecotech, Banjolux, Benjamin Security, Better Infrastructure, Caribbean Shades, CATS, Commercial Stone Group, Cutting Edge Floor, Eagle Roofing, Friomax, Gerry's Refri Center, Island Overseas, Professional Pest Control, Thiel Corporation and SETAR, N.V.

On Wednesday evening, Expo Cas 2006 was declared open by His Excellency, Prime Minister Nelson Oduber, in conjunction with the Third Congress of the Federation of Caribbean Associations of Architects (FCAA.), which is taking place in Aruba through Friday. A gala opening ceremony on Wednesday evening offered the gathering a chance to explore the numerous booths for one of the largest real estate and home expositions the island has ever seen. Opening hours are from 4:00 P.M to 7:00 P.M this evening and Friday, and from 11:00 A.M to 7:00 P.M. on Saturday. A door prize of building materials valued at 2,500 Arubian florins will be awarded at the end of the Expo. The entrance fee is five florins ($2.85) per person.
